LIFE for Youth

Learning Innovation for Future Employment

LIFE for Youth is a paid six-month program that provides an opportunity to gain employability and life skills through innovative classroom instruction and various in-house work placements. Add to this an external work placement with an employer in the Caledon community and this program is a tremendous opportunity for Caledon's youth!

Throughout the program, participants receive supportive job coaching and gain the ability to successfully discover their marketable skills. Participants who successfully complete the program will receive a $500.00 completion bonus!

You may be eligible if you are:

- 15 - 30 years of age
- Out of school
- In need of assistance to overcome employment challenges
- Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents
- Not in receipt of Employment Insurance are eligible
